APRIL 21, 2024 - FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 20-21, 2024

www.stjohnberchmans.com

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The difference between the good shepherd and the hired hand is the difference between life and death. Unlike a hired hand who only works for pay and would run away at the first sign of difficulty, Jesus is a good shepherd who willingly lays down his life for his sheep. The good shepherd draws the sheep near to him. They belong to him—not as a possession that can be discarded, but as precious ones who are assured that they can rely on his care and protection. The sheep owe their very lives to the shepherd. Without him, they will be scattered and left on their own in what is often a dangerous world.

BECOMING GOOD SHEEP

No sheep with any sense would wander off and leave the fold. The shepherd provides food and safety. Away from the fold, the sheep risks death in the jaws of wolves or starvation in the desert. Jesus is the Good Shepherd and invites us to be good sheep. Jesus has experienced the best and the worst of all that life has in store. He has known the simple joys and the deep disappointments of life; he has known temptation, anxiety, and fatigue. Jesus walks ahead of us, leading the way. We may be tempted to wander away, lured by temporary pleasures and tempted by the illusion of something better over the horizon. In the noise of daily life, surrounded by messages that compete with God and God's ways, it is easy to become distracted from what is important and lasting. Jesus, our Good Shepherd, invites us to be good sheep who are so close to him that we hear and recognize his voice. As good sheep, we are called to follow the voice of the Shepherd, trusting that he will guide us to the best pasture, where we can thrive.

TODAY'S READINGS: Acts 4:8-12; Ps 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29; 1 Jn 3:1-2, Jn 10:11-18

EL BUEN PASTOR

La diferencia entre el buen pastor y un trabajador es la distinción entre la vida y la muerte. A diferencia del trabajador quien trabaja por un salario y huye a la primera señal de dificultad, Jesús es un buen pastor que da su vida por sus ovejas. El buen pastor atrae a las ovejas hacia él. Ellas le pertenecen, no como una posesión que se puede desechar, sino como una posesión preciosa que tienen la seguridad que pueden contar con su cuidado y protección. Las ovejas deben su vida al pastor. Sin él, se dispersarían y quedarían solas en lo que a menudo es un mundo peligroso.

HACIÉNDOSE BUENAS OVEJAS

Ninguna oveja con algo de sentido se alejaría y dejaría el rebaño. El pastor proporciona alimento y seguridad. Lejos del rebaño, las ovejas se arriesgan a morir en las fauces de los lobos o a morir de hambre en el desierto. Jesús es el Buen Pastor y nos invita a ser buenas ovejas. Jesús experimentó lo mejor y lo peor de todo lo que la vida tiene reservado. Él conocía las simples alegrías y las profundas decepciones de la vida; él supo lo que era la tentación, la angustia y el cansancio. Jesús camina delante de nosotros, guiándonos en el camino. Tal vez seamos tentados a alejarnos, atraídos a placeres temporales y tentados por la ilusión de algo mejor en el horizonte. En el ruido de la vida diaria, rodeados por mensajes que compiten con Dios y sus caminos, es fácil distraerse de aquello que es importante y duradero. Jesús, nuestro Buen Pastor, nos invita a ser buenas ovejas que están cerca de él para escuchar y reconocer su voz. Como buenas ovejas, estamos llamados a seguir la voz del Pastor, confiando que él nos guiará a mejores pasturas donde podamos prosperar.

LECTURAS DE HOY: Hch 4:8-12; Sal 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29; 1 Jn 3:1-2; Jn 10:11-18

"Come to Me, all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." Mt. 11:28

EUCHARISTIC
Adoration

Dear Parishioners and Friends:

The spirit of Easter continues to guide the life of the disciples and made them true witnesses of the Risen Lord. Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit addressed himself to the leaders and elders by reminding them that the crippled man was saved in the name of Jesus Christ, the Nazorean whom they crucified and whom God raised from the dead.

He added that He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved. As St. Paul teaches us that we are children of God. When God is revealed to us, we will be like Him. That is why we shall follow the true Shepherd. St. John challenges us to not only follow our Shepherd but also be one in this world. We should not be concerned only for pay and interest but for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me.

We are challenged to love one another and to take care of each other especially during these times of war and ugliness that characterize our society. He is risen and is alive.

I thank all of you who made a special effort to attend and participated in the Christian Concert this past Friday, April 19th. A special appreciation goes to Adam Olmos for a powerful and inspiring concert. May we continue to worship and glorify the risen Lord in our daily life.

Please strongly consider supporting my efforts to raise money for our St. John Berchmans School. My plan is to register 50 new students and offer each new registered student a scholarship of $1,000. I will be sponsoring a 5K (3.1 miles) run on Mother's Day Weekend, Saturday, May 11th, 2024 at 8:00 in the morning at Woodlawn Lake Park for the purpose of raising money for our beloved school and also to celebrate all our beloved mothers.

Schedule of events for the day:

- 8:00 a.m.: 5k run (3.1 miles) by Fr. Fidèle Dikete and anyone who also wishes to run
- 9:30 am: 1.3 mile run by students
- 10:00 am: 1.3 mile walk by all the mothers
- 10:30 am thru 11:00 am: Mariachi

I am asking for a donation of $20 to support the effort. Generous donations are also welcomed to raise $50,000 to assist the school. Please support our school and me, your Pastor, in this endeavor.

God bless you,

Fr. Fidèle Okitembo Dikete, Pastor

THANKSGIVING AFTER COMMUNION

Have you ever noticed how Father sits back in his Chair after distributing Communion? He is giving thanksgiving, and this is an ancient and venerable custom based on the fact that the reality of the Eucharistic presence of Jesus remains in us for about ten to fifteen minutes after we receive Him.

In effect, we are like living tabernacles for that period of time. We should also reflect and offer a prayer of thanksgiving after Mass.

PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED ON FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 2024 FOR BATTLE OF FLOWERS.
